THE JOY YOU HELP CREATE

Dear Friends, Families, and Supporters,

Summer is one of the most joyful seasons at our ministries. As the days grow longer and the sunshine invites us outdoors, our programs come alive with picnics, community outings, gardening, games, and seasonal celebrations. These experiences help the individuals we serve build friendships, discover new interests, and simply enjoy being together. More than just fun, they foster confidence, independence, and a sense of belonging that reflects God's love for every person.

While summer brings excitement, our mission continues every day. Adults with developmental disabilities participate in meaningful programs that encourage personal growth and community involvement. Our mental health counseling services provide compassionate care and hope to individuals and families facing life's challenges, and our food pantry remains a vital resource for neighbors in need. Even as many people take vacations, the need for these services never pauses, and neither does our commitment to serving others.

As we celebrate this vibrant season, we are grateful for the generous supporters, volunteers, and prayer partners who make our ministry possible. Whether you're donating needed items, volunteering at a summer event, making a financial gift, or lifting our staff and participants in prayer, you are helping share God's love in tangible ways. Thank you for walking alongside us as we continue bringing hope, encouragement, and joy to our community.

In gratitude,

Terri Rodriguez

TOGETHER TOWARD TOMORROW

Your gifts, service, and prayers help Lutheran Ministries of Mercy provide innovative programs for children, adults, seniors, and families throughout our communities.

Through our annual Together Toward Tomorrow campaign, you can help provide hope, dignity, and compassionate care every day. Every gift—large or small—helps strengthen our mission.

If now isn't the right time to give, we encourage you to save the enclosed donation envelope and use it when you're able. Your generosity moves our mission forward.

A Message from Carol Slight

Vice President, Filling Homes

As Pastor Denise so warmly shares in her article, “This is a place of joy.” Looking back on this summer at Filling Homes, I can’t help but think about how true those words are.

The past few months have given us plenty to celebrate, from honoring Pastor Denise’s 40 years of ordained ministry in May to marking 10 years of Abilities Bistro in June. In July, we celebrated nearly 350 staff during Revival Week, themed “Together, We Make a Great Bunch.” Our staff were “Peachy,” “Berry Appreciated,” and “The Zest,” with each day offering a fun reminder of how much we appreciate the people who give so much of themselves to Filling Homes. We are truly “Grapeful” for our amazing team.

But the joy at Filling Homes isn’t limited to the big celebrations. It can be found in a resident’s Elvis-themed 60th birthday, a staff member marking their first anniversary, an art project coming together, or a baseball game or car show shared with others. These moments become part of the bigger memories.

And the fun continues this fall. The Filling Homes Guild will host the Festival of Tables in September, followed by the Filling Fall Fling in November. Both offer opportunities for our community to gather and continue traditions that have become part of the Filling Homes story.

Looking back on this summer, I’m grateful for the people we serve, the staff who support them, and the families, friends, volunteers, and supporters who stand alongside us.

From big milestones to everyday moments of joy, there is always something happening at Filling Homes that is worth celebrating.

In May, we welcomed more than 25 retired staff members back to the Main Campus for our annual Retiree Luncheon.

As past and current staff came together to reconnect, residents also enjoyed seeing familiar faces from years past. The day was a meaningful reminder of the lasting relationships that make Filling Homes feel like family.

We are grateful for the retired staff who continue to return each year and remain such an important part of our community!

MISSION

A Seat at the Table: Celebrating 10 Years of Abilities Bistro

Jessica has learned how to safely wash a sharp knife. Dalton has progressed from relying on visual cues to independently stocking the refrigerator from memory. Brittany has strengthened her math skills through counting money and working at the register. And Amanda, who has worked at Abilities Bistro for four years, has grown from working at the cash box to cooking in the kitchen.

These accomplishments may seem like small steps, but at Abilities Bistro, they represent something much bigger: the opportunity to learn, contribute, and discover what is possible. Since opening in June 2016 at the Filling Homes Main Campus in Napoleon, the bistro has been part of Filling Homes' Adult Day Services program, providing clients with hands-on experience in a licensed food service setting.

Clients take on many of the responsibilities that keep the Bistro running, including preparing and serving meals, greeting guests, taking orders, operating the register, maintaining the dining area, and helping with menu planning. Through that work, they build practical skills while gaining confidence and independence. The skills learned at the bistro can extend beyond its doors. Amanda uses the cash management skills she developed there in her work at Soaring Arts, where she helps collect payment for homemade dog treats.

Job coaches Linda and Katie lead the program, guiding eight clients who rotate through the small restaurant each week and are paid for their work. Linda, who has worked at Filling Homes for 46 years, has spent much of her career helping clients develop skills and independence. Katie has co-led the Bistro for five years and, with her upbeat personality, she helps clients feel comfortable and confident as they learn new skills. Together, they provide the training and support that allow clients to succeed and have fun along the way.

Some of the most meaningful parts of the bistro happen between the tasks. Clients enjoy working alongside one another, greeting familiar customers, and welcoming new faces. Over the years, regular guests have become friends, returning not only for lunch but to catch up with the clients and staff they have come to know. Those everyday conversations and shared laughs are part of what has made the bistro such a special part of Filling Homes.

Abilities Bistro welcomes the public Monday-Friday from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Stop in for a homemade meal, stay for a conversation, and celebrate 10 years of good food and the people who

A Legacy of Giving: The Filling Homes Guild

For more than 60 years, the Guild has been part of the Filling Homes story. The group was formed in September 1965, following the passing of Carrie Filling Vagen, to honor her legacy and continue her spirit of support for the people and mission she cared so deeply about. Originally established as the Women's Guild of the Filling Memorial Home of Mercy, the Guild has grown into a welcoming group of men and women who continue to make a difference in the lives of those we serve.

That spirit of giving began early. In April 1969, Guild members awarded the first Moser Memorial Nursing Scholarship for $250. More than 50 years later, the scholarship continues to support students pursuing nursing. The award amount varies each year based on membership dues and donations, and the Guild was pleased to award $1,000 scholarships to 2026 recipients Kenna Rosengarten and Elizabeth Orozco.

Over the years, the Guild's generosity has helped make a variety of projects at Filling Homes possible. From supporting updated accessible transportation to providing a new hydraulic lift for the Hanson Aquatic Therapy Center, as well as helping fund the construction of the Main Campus greenhouse, their contributions have made a lasting impact on the people we serve.

Today, the Guild continues its tradition of fellowship and fundraising. Their annual Festival of Tables and Fall Fling bring people together while raising funds to benefit Filling Homes. This year's Festival of Tables will take place Saturday, September 26, followed by Fall Fling on Saturday, November 7.

For those looking for a way to become more involved, the Guild offers an opportunity to connect with others who share a heart for Filling Homes. Members can lend a hand at events, participate in fundraising, or simply enjoy fellowship with others who are committed to supporting our mission. Membership is open to men and women of all ages, and annual dues are just $1.

We are truly grateful to the Guild members who continue to honor Carrie Filling Vagen's vision by supporting the people and mission of Filling Homes. To learn more about ways to get involved, please contact Mission Advancement Director Tina Parsons at tinaparsons@fillinghome.org.

Pastor Denise Brown: Faithfully Serving for 40 Years

Pastor Denise Brown's ministry has always been centered on people. This spring, Filling Homes celebrated her 40th anniversary of ordination. For the past 27 years, she has served as the Filling Homes chaplain, becoming like family to generations of residents, families, and staff.

At the heart of her work is a simple belief: people of all abilities deserve to know they are loved by God. Pastor Denise's calling to disability ministry grew from a desire to help people discover God's love while respecting each person's right to explore their faith, ask questions, and make their own choices.

Over the years, she has quietly planted seeds of faith in the lives of residents, giving them space to grow in their own way and in their own time. Whether sitting with someone who needs to be heard, visiting someone who is sick, or sharing in a celebration, she has built relationships through presence and trust. Her doctoral studies in disability ministry further deepened her understanding of how faith can be shared in ways that honor each person's abilities and experiences.

Each week, residents have the opportunity to gather for chapel, participating through prayer, music, words, or simply being present. Her work also extends through Community Chapel, a monthly worship service at Filling Homes for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities across northwest Ohio. Through both services, she creates opportunities for people to worship, ask questions, and experience God's love in ways that are meaningful to them.

Pastor Denise describes Filling Homes as "a place of joy and celebration." She sees God's beauty in the people around her and, as she says, "God loves each of us individually."

For Pastor Denise, that is what ministry is about: helping people know they are seen, valued, and loved by God, exactly as they are.

Pastor Denise, thank you for being a faithful leader in our community and a devoted advocate! Your faithfulness has made, and continues to make, a BIG difference in the lives of so many. We congratulate you on 40 years of ordained ministry!
